

An illustration of the Gruffalo and his child in a snowy, mountainous landscape. The Gruffalo, a large brown monster with horns, tusks, and a green nose, stands on the right, holding a small stick. His child, a smaller brown monster, stands next to him, also holding a stick. The background features snow-covered evergreen trees and a large, jagged snowdrift on the left. The title 'THE GRUFFALO'S CHILD' is written in a stylized, yellow, hand-drawn font across the upper left portion of the image.
